Agrarian Reform and Peasant Economy in Southern Peru

David W. Guillet. In this first full-scale anthropological study of peasant participation in a Peruvian agrarian reform cooperative, Guillet shows that the agrarian reform law has been less than successful in its attempt to change landownership patterns and to create new, participatory forms of land use. He argues that cooperative production is ill suited to Peru's peasant economy. ISBN 0-8262-0263-2 February 192 pages $18.00 tent.
